The Story of Jazz

A Course of 10 seminars

Every Tuesday at 10 am, starts October 4th

Have you ever wondered where Jazz came from, or why it is that you find yourself only liking certain artists or styles while rejecting others?

This course has been designed to answer these questions and many more by examining the development of Jazz from its pre-history up till the present day. A series of 10 seminars, illustrated with choice recordings will expose you to the various stylistic developments that make up the culturally rich world of Jazz. Cost is $100.00 per student.
